Eddie Lawhorn, of McKinney, Texas, aged ten years, has been arrested for stealing and endeavoring to sell a horse. The liquor dealers of New Orleans will fight the Moffett-register all the way to the Supreme Court. Gov. Hampton, of South Carolina, boldly announces that he is in favor of paying every dollar of the state debt. There are more than 9,600,000 acres of cotton lands in Texas, which, if cultivated, would yield a larger crop than that preduced in the whole United States at the present time. Texas now raises onefifth of the whole crop, and more than any other State in the Union. The Supreme court of Louisiana the other day opened with the same formal- and the rest looked on. They were all ity prescribed by fthe chief justice last very ignorant people. Kate and her year and then used for the first time. sister both centered on "Sis" Cowart. At the usual hour the sheriff and clerks There is no evidence that the man presattended the judges at their lodgings, ent tried to part the combatants, nor and all walked thence in procession to the does there appear to have been such a court-house. The lawyers rose as the scene as the sentimental writers picture, judges entered, and each bowed to each of Bob, with pistol in hand, forcing Belton (Texas) Journal: The court of | was the imagination of a fancy sketcher.

appeals having affirmed the verdict and Kate Southern is not pretty even. She sentence of John Wesley Hardin, he will is a medium height, about twenty years go to the state penitentiary for twenty- of age, and has dark brown hair and the five years. Judge White, who rendered the final decision, expressed a degree of is very ignorant, can hardly read and surprise that he had not been sentenced write, and Bob is worse educated than to death in the district court. He said she. Kate is passably good-looking, and that justice had not been meted out to wears imitation jet. She says the withim; if it had he would have been hung. nesses swore lies against her; that she Hardin is yet a young man, and may acted in self-defense; that she can not possibly get a chance to make his escape dance, and that night at her father's was please, madam !" said Mark Arkwright and resume his career. His term of im- the "fust time she ever seed a real run." to his wife, Augusta. prisonment will end in 1903, and he will She is now on the plantation of Colonel then be fifty-seven years old.

He says: The climate is very unhealthy, "baby" is sick-teething-and that now people who love each other should ever especially for Americans. Fevers are requires most of her time. She says no speak. If two indifferent persons quarrel, sick, the native doctors give you brush Her health is bad. tes, which kills eight out of every ten Her sixteen-year-old sister, sentenced dulge in the dangerous pastime it is fre-Americans. The country is full of in- to two years as an accessory to Kate's quently fatal to happiness. sects, the most troublesome being a bug crime, has been in Colonel Smith's house They had been married but a year, resembling a large ant, and travels very as a servant. She is handsome, and has and the sweet glamour of romance had poisonous and painful.

Houston, Texas, special to the St | blessing. Louis Globe-Democrat: Sam Bass is Bob Southern is nothing but a strong, woman's judgment might be different. again back in his old haunts in Denton good looking animal-a common, On the afternoon of the quarrel he county. Three of his brother robbers, ignorant, boor. He is now a guard to had asked his wife to drive with him. Underwood, Collins and Carter, are re- convicts on the same plantation. The and she had declined on that old pleagust, principally, it is thought, because the rest. Captain of the Rangers, has arrived utterly disgusted with the amount of tablished her on the lounge in her room, back in Dallas and says in the recent sentimental twaddle that has been ex- with a pillow under her head and a shawl fight with the Bass gang, in Wise county, pended on the case. Not a scintilla can over her feet, before he went out for his the robber Johnson was the only one that be obtained to excite a single expression afternoon drive. in the English style. Taking deliberate crime we can not imagine proved himself a creck shot, Johnson pathetic her part may be, who, after supposed to be above the weakness of uttering a faint aclamation, and throw- reading this swern testimony, will sign purple-velvet skirts.

Miscellaneous.

the Michigan Central Railroad.

The Richmond Dispatch figures it out license because the statutes are not enthat the returns from the Moffet register forced.-[Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer. for the year, in Virginia, will reach

An eagle in the Alps Mountains, a short time ago, carried away a ewe lamb to its nest. The lamb was not killed by the monarch of birds, and lived in appa- party of about twenty who had crossed rent harmony with the young eaglets for the Atlantic together, being from New four days, when it was rescued by the York and England. Among them was a

A commercial traveler, who has just at the Paris exposition, I believe, who returned from a trip through Ohio states was much looked up to by his comthat the farmers in many places have panions, owing to a singular talent he recently received an anonymous postal possessed-that of snoring. He carcard communication of a threatening ried about with him in his pocket book a nature signed "Communist" and com- clipping from an Iowa newspaper, demanding them to discontinue the use of scriptive of the exploits of an inveterate snorer in a sleeping car, and this extract A letter from Havana, sava: the he was made to produce and read in all campaign of the Spaniards against the companies with full sternutatory accom-Cubans, without any battles, has cost pagiment, and very amusing it was. the former 80,000 men, and the island is He had developed snoring into a fine a vast cemetery. Five vessels are on the art, and, indeed, there is no wonder way from Spain to carry home the that he had attained considerable pertroops. Martinez Campos had begun a fection, since, as he confided to me, he reduction of Government expenses on had been made to go through the perthe island by giving up one-half of his formance at least six times a day on the voyage across. At Dieppe I lost sight own salary as Captain General.

The following is a clause in Mr. Bryant's will: "It either of my daughters should die without children, I direct that whatever she is to receive by this instrument shall go to her surviving sister. I direct, further, that the property given to my daughters shall be settled off to sleep when a stentorian snore awoke she had married him. Then she left the ree from any intermeddling or control Then came a burst of laughter, then of the busband of either of them.

Advices frem southwestern Kansas say that terrible rain storms prevailed in bed, I slipped out on to the balcony, that region last week. At Winfield the and, guided by the snoring gamut, went estimated at twenty-five inches. The whole country was inundated and great damage done to crops. Bridges and fences were carried away, and cattle, hogs lately contained something stronger than sundry bottles which contained or had and poultry drowned. The children of vin ordinair. After listening for a few a farmer named Frue, living on Beaver creek, were drowned, and Mr. Bell, living on Badger creek, was also drowned.

I passed along the gallery I noticed that almost every door was opened to admit The total cost of the Canadian Pacific of the protrusion of a more or less disrailway is estimated at $100,000,000. heveled head, from which proceeded tor-The vast sum of $15,000,000 has already rents of objurgation, either in the gutbeen expended in surveys and contracts, tural tones of the Gaul or the softer but and all that is now to show for it, says not less expressive accents of the Anglothe Railway Age, is some seventy miles Saxon,- Paris letter. of track from Thunder Bay on Lake Superier, westward into the wilderness and equipments was about $250,000,000.

ransit of Mercury, have been visiting some dinner."

HICKMAN ANTID

COURIER.

ESTABLISHED 1859.

Mount Hamilton, Colorado, the site

selected for the great Lick Observatory.

Professor Andre said that at no other place which they had visited in the world did they find every thing so favorable for Stripping the Romance off the Kate Southern Case.

We give in this paper the evidence elicited in the much talked of trial of Kate Southern. It differs as much as light and darkness from the sensational accounts we have been reading in certain correspondence. There is nothing in the scenes, the surroundings, nor in the in-astronomical observations.

HICKMAN, FULTON CO., KENTUCKY, FRIDAY JULY 12, 1878

LOST AND FOUND. Like the brook as it wound its way,
Like a thread of sliver hue;
Chrough green wood and valley, through mesdow

'Twas hidden away from view; But I found again a nobler river, Sparking and broad and free, Wider and fairer growing ever, Till it reached the boundless sea. I lost the tiny seed that I sowed
With many a sigh and tear,
And valuly waited through sunshine and cold
For the young green to appear;
But surely after many long days
The blossom and fruit will come,
And the respers on high the sheaves will ruise
For a joyful harvest-home.

lost the life that grew by my own For one short summer day; and then it left me to wander alone, And silently passed away: Sat [knew I shall find it turther on, Though not as it left me here: of the shadows and mists will have passed and cidents to glean a tithe of romance. I shallsee it fair and clear. The whole was a fight between two women, while the gallant Bob Southern lost the notes of the heavenly chime That once came floating by:

have fixened and waited many a time
For the echo. though distantly:
tut I know in the halls of glory it thrills.
Everby day and by night;
shall hear it complete when its harmony fills
My mo with great delight.

A love that was all for me;
A love that was all for me;
Oh! vainly I sought it amid the strife
Of the stormy, raging sea;
But deeper and purer I know it waita
Beyond my wistful eyes;
I shall find it sgain within the gates Of the garden of Paradise. Kate's way through a crowd. All that shall lose this life! It will disappear, With its wonderful mystery;

Some say it will move no longer here,
But will vanish stiently;
But I know I shall find it again once more,
In a beauty no song nath rold;
It will meet with me at the golden door,
And round me forever fold. twang of a North Georgia cracker. She LOST LILY.

"We will have it out, new, if you

And they did have it out with a ven-Smith, in Washington county, and will geance. Both were high-tempered; A negro, who has just returned from | be employed in the household, cooking | neither had learned self-control; and, be-Liberia, tells the Aberdeen (Miss.) and washing for the convicts who work fore the scene between them was ended. Examiner his impression of the country. on the plantation. The six-months both had spoken words such as no two very frequent and fatal. If you get money has been sent her from the north. it does not amount to much generally; but when two who love each other in rapidly, called the racer. They go into been taught to read and write by her hardly worn off. This was their first dishouses at night after a rain and give a kind mistress. On her father's farm she agreement, and it began in a secret. person no rest, their bite being both worked in the field and drove an ox to Perhaps Mr. Arkwright had ample cause the plow. Her sentence has proved a to be angry with his wife. I am sure that every man will think so, though a ported to have left their leader in dis- woman Kate killed was on a par with the headache. He had pitied and petted her and kissed her hot forehead and Sam's money has given out. Jessie Peak, On reading this evidence one feels smoothed her soft blende hair, and es-showed anything like courage. In the of admiration. Why, the parties sur- Two hours later he had occasion to fight both sides were mounted, and when rendered themselves to get a reward, and the property of the firing was at its height one of Peak's the understanding was that Kate's lowly down one of the most sectuded men dismounted and laid down flat on mother was to get $50 of the money paths, he saw a purple-velvet skirt, behis back on the ground, then raising his Where even a fertile fancy could e fact side a black coat. Augusta had a purknees he made of them a rest for his rifle anything of a romance from ap crocious ple-velvet skirt, and looked like an angel, her husband had frequently told her, all aim at the bandit Johnson, who was We do not believe dere is a single unmindful of the historical fact that seated on his horse, the ranger fired and woman, no matter now warm and sym- angels universally wear white, and are ing up his sands, from which his gun a petition for Kate Southern's pardon. The airs and manners of the man were fell, trabled out of the saddle and Gov. colquitt did right. He weighed foreign: he was handsome and had an megared his length in the shadows of the evidence carefully, and displayed uneasy appearance generally-indeed, he are hill. The balance of the robbers both justice and humanity in his de- seemed to be constantly looking over his cision. A crime has been committed, a shoulder. woman killed another in her father's Arkwright paused in the shadow of a house, after she had been received kindly clump of trees and watched the pair. I The Vanderbilt party have gobbled up by her parents—and then to demand of suppose "watched" is the proper word, the authorities that she shall go free is though Arkwright prided himself on be-The Will of the late William Cullen preposterous. If such an act were par- ing an extremely honorable man, and Bryant disposes of property valued at doned, the doing so would be a mockery | would doubtless have knocked anybody of law. Crime already has too much down who had insinuated anything to the contrary.

There was no mistaking the grace of the lady, the wave of her golden hair, the turn of her snowy neck-yes, the very wreath of purple pansies on her

An Accomplished American

Abroad.

I crossed the British channel with a along to a lighted window, through which were visible the nasal artist his admiring and untiring audience, and moments, I returned to my room, and as ment more her husband heard her voice. "Dear Arthur," she was saving, "every | brother !" moment for you here is fraught with peril. Lose no time in getting out of had one!" New England seap boiler, an exhibitor London."

"But, darling," returned the man, nothing save my love for you has brought me here; and it is hard if I cannot have just this little comfort."

They moved away down the walk, and Arkwright heard no more. But he had heard quite enough. He was in a white heat of passion. He dared not follow them and trust himselk to speak. There was murder in his heart. He must wait a little till his temper cooled. He went to alstable, hired a fast horse, and rode him till the animal was ready to drop, Then he went home and accused his wife. No matter in what words-they were harsh and bitter enough, heaven knows ; and the vile epithets he applied to her at the outset roused all her haughty pride

She heard him through. She attemptseducer, and finding them never.

At last he quit wandering and carpet, and burst into tears. went home. He was a very wealthy man now. Lands that he had owned "there is a little man with more riches weather. Another of the officers. Hen had increased prodigiously in value, and | than he can enjoy !" .. A goed old farmer found himsel there was no need of his applying hima few miles of track from Winnipeg, in one day with his hired boy at the farther self to business. He built a man-Manitobia, eastward. The cost of the end of the row, when the dinner horn sion and lived alone in it, with occurred in a New England railway sta-Union and Central Pacific roads with sounded. Anxious te make every ster his books and thoughts for com- tion: Pat-" Phat is the fare to Put- minutes, including the putting all of Bella-" Now look here, Tommy. count, he commenced to hoe his way pany. He had a retinue of serv- nam?" Agent-"Putnam in Massachu- the crew in the forecastle in irons. I pose there were three apples on the back, saying to the boy as he did so, ants to anticipate his every wish; he sat setts or Connecticut?" Pat—"Phat is doused all the lights, changed the ship's table. Could I take away one and leave .. The three French commissioners, "Thomas, do you ever think about dy- at a costly table, and drank wine as old the fare?" Agent—"$5 to Putnam, course and took departure from Cape three?" Tommy—"Oh, no, August length of time Miss Donaldson went the fare?" Agent—"$5 to Putnam, course and took departure from Cape three?" Tommy—"Oh, no, August length of time Miss Donaldson went length of time Miss Do Messrs. Andre, Ango and Hatt, who ing?" "Yes," said Tom, "I think I as the hills; he drove horses worth a Mass.; $8 to Putnam, Conn." Pat— Elizabeth light at four o'clock that Certainly not!' Aunt Belia—"And without partaking of either food or the side flower beds and the verbena panzee, whom the late Mr. Mant ame to this country to observe the shall die pretty soon, if I don't have fortune; he had everything that wealth "Well, bedad, Oi'll take the chapest!"—

Without partaking of either food er the side flower beds and the verocing panzee, whom the side flower beds are side flower beds and the verocing panzee, who the side flower beds are side flower beds and the verocing panzee, who the side flower beds are side flower beds and the verocing panzee, who the side flower beds are side flower beds and the verocing panzee, who the side flower beds are side flower beds and the verocing panzee, who the side flower beds a

CAPTURE OF A CRUISER.

Confederate Crew. The Recent Ar-rest of One of Her Officers on a Charge of Murder. Captain John C. Braire, an ex-com-gone to walk by themselves, and they scouts the idea of being himself arrested, had walked, oh, so far! and now they and says neither he nor Parr were ever guilty of piracy, that they held commis- circumference, measuring round the Her name was Lily, and the kitten's sions in the Confederate my and were thick part, was recently laid by a hen nate war/are.

He conversed free what he She and the kitten had it all their own mond, Va., in January 1863, taking covers the space occupied by the slight, and wore black, and had her face the 1st of December he tok his men and portion.

offered to pay him for his trouble from vessel proceeded down the harbor, and a very slender-looking purse; and, being when opposite the batter made a stop. indignantly refused, she turned to go. Braine supposed they had been betrayed. One of the most remarkable incidents took but only between Pagengar Came on going to show the affection of dumb Lily was in her arms. Arkwright took astep toward them, and Lily threw an board. At supper the captain told animals for those who care for them ocarm around his neck, drawing him up Braine that none of his men's fare had curred in this city a ew days since. close, and face to face with the lady. been paid. "I paid their fare," says Our readers will remember the drowning Through the thick folds of the veil their Braine, "thinking that I would soon last Sunday of the little six-year old boy, eyes met. He started back, pallid and have the meney back. That night my- Danny. The child had a little dog who self and Lieutenant Parr packed and was his constant companion and play-"Augusta!" he faltered, in a cheked and capped the revolver in my state mate. When the accident occurred, room and secretly handed them to the which resulted in the drowning of the men. At half-past one on Monday boy, the dog was with him, and by his strange conduct and uneasiness he atwoman always is in cases of emergency. ant Parr. We donnedour naval uniforms tracted the attention of those present. All the old love, herce and ungovernable of gray, turned out surmen and inform- While the boy was lying in the bettom ed them that the time for action had of the stream, the dog would run to the come. On entering the saloon child's mother and then toward the place at two o'clock the lights were where the boy was supposed to be, and turned low, and no one was visible but finally plunged in and swam around or an old skipper sitting by the stove. He over the spot where his little master lay. remarked that I was up rather early. After the body had been placed in the I replied that the sea air did not agree coffin, the dog manifested a strong desire with me and that, in the name of the to see the child, and when the lid of the dreaming, as if it were an effort for him | Confederate states of America, he was my | coffin was raised, he licked the dead prisoner. We made all our captures in face and seemed to feel intense grief. In the name of our government, said Braine, and the charge of piracy falls to the ground. I then ordered Lieutenant road, as it had done many times before; home. Mark, at this time—the last time | Parr with three men to proceed on deck | but upon the approach of the train, he and capture the first officer, who had laid himself upon the rail and deliberyou the truth. You were jealous of my watch, and wait for erders. Lieutenant ately permitted the train to pass over Collins I ordered to the engine room. his body-being killed. The whole "Your brother! I never knew you He took three men, and his orders were actions of the dog were such as to conto arrest all in the pame of the Confede- vince one that it was governed by was two years my junior, and a cruel rate states, and on no account to fire on reasoning powers, and is another illusmisfortune placed him in a position any man unless he resisted. I then pro- tration of the remarkable love or attach-deck again by the main-hole, was shot room and found the steam going down and no engineer on duty. In the fire room I found eight firemen in irons in front of the furnace. Lieutenant the firemen in irons over them resisted and was fired at. The the engineer, happiest family this side of paradise.

"See there," said the philosopher, a rather cool costume for December

... The following conversation lately him to the wheel house. The total time island of Grand Munan, opposite Eastport, Me., and there turn her over to Captain Parker, of the Confederate navy."

An egg five and two-third inches in Museum in London with a label on it A race of men was recently heard of became absolutely unbearable. He got idea of retaliation to the confederate oped to such enormous proportions that DEATH FROM STARVATION. so nervous that he started at every government. Commands Braine was he can not raise it any higher than his sound of the bell-fearful that some one ordered to go to New Yor and capture breast. When held up by another perany vessel he saw fit. He left Rich- son above the boy's head it completely in the library and upset the books and and Second Lieutenant David Collins. this large hand is George Evans, and he railroad track and laid down upon the ment that some animals bave for their masters. The mother, at the time of the he fied from mistaken justice. I was companion-way. When smidships I drowning, supposed the child was at heard a man run to the port side and a home, and, therefore, neglected to obey shot fired at the companion-way. It was the hint given by the dog that might as a felon. In that I sinned. I had a the first officer, who disregarded the hail have saved the boy's life.—[Lincoln

A Dog Story from Nebraska.

The Electric Light. One of Philadelphia's largest carpet manufactories has recently put in the the device is a complete success. It con-Collins reported tome that while putting sists of a Brush dynamo-electric machine of 12,000 candle power, arranged to give tour separate currents, each runhearing this, armed himself with a fourning an electric lamp of 3,000 candle barrelled Sharp's deringer and, on being power. Two of the lamps were placed on ordered to surrender, fired at one of my the third floor, and two on the fourth men. The fire was returned, and the engineer was killed. This was Orrin the engine was started up the machine sician's finger could be plainly seen floor of the immense building, and when Shepherd, the second engineer, for whose murder as a pirate Lieutenant the slightest manual interference the so intense that it had extended up into magnificence. The effect was most briliant. The rooms were flooded with a pure white light like the light of the sup, and it streamed out at all the windows, illuminating houses and streets for a long distance in every direction. The ligh, was very uniform, and steady, free from the flickering, and considering the normous illuminating power, the light was unexpectedly soft and endurable to the eyes. Estimates were made as to the amount that the light furnished by this apparatus would cost if used by the Screw Company as it was used on this occasion, and it was ascertained that the total cost including the items of consumption of carbon in the lamps, interest on the investment, and wear and tear out and ran around the deck in his shirt. would not exceed thirty cents an hour. The light produced was photometrically equal to 800 gas burners. burning five derson got down on his kees and begged feet of gas per hour each. This amount for his life. I put him in irons and sent of gas would cost $8 per hour.

vessel to Seal Cove on the English | wouldn't be polite!"

THE SENSE OF LOSS.

It is not at the hour of death, While mourning on the parting breath : It is not while we look our last,

It is not when, love's labor done,
The coffin closed we one by one,
With trembling awe, approach and kne
And on the lid a farewell seal From lips that cannot speak a prayer, So deep the struggling feeling there— We fiel our loss. And when the last dread solemn rite

Ashes to ashes must unite, In sable garb we stand around Bathing with tears the burial grou But when a few more days are gone, and yet we weep, but weep aighe When all is as it was before, Save one we never can see more; When others take that vacant place So lately filled by one dear face— We feel our kes.

Ah, many a year may pass away, And many a sunb-am around us play, And many a cloud of heav r wos Darken our pathway here below; But joy, or grief can ne'er efface inquisitive little nose into his face, all from Jefferson Davis to ender Braine's Brussels, and though treated well, has ishment of any description. A similar found bow to the king, said: But one day, just as Arkwright was power. Braine drew on him liberally, three feet long, but is deformed, being never occurred in this city, and for this who very much resembled your majesty, and an inability to retain solid food upon herstomech. A physician was summoned, who, it is said by the girl's mother, gave from ulceration of the sucham, and mass harangue that the soldier was not accordingly treated her for that come of those who slept, and that, notplaint. She grew no better, however, withstanding he had feigned being in the how she liked it, she placidly remarked every morsel of food that was taken into same condition with his companions, he that he "put too darned much mouth the stomach being immediately thrown was the only one at his duty, permitted on it to suit her."

Woman Lives Three Months Without Food-A Remarkable Case.

weaker. At the expiration of that time and as unforeseen as they came." she was taken to the "Good Samaritan Home," corner of Allen and Chambers streets, where she remained under the immediate supervision of Dr. Kennear had not swallowed anything for three lieve there is. I'll get my little dish any trouble with disobedient wives. months. They suppose it to be a secre- and spoon and play I've got a pudding never did, an' I have been married night tion of gall from the bladder. So thin with D for Danny on it. But any way onto fifty years," "What is your had the walls of the stomach become I want mamma so bad .- [New Orleans secret?" asked a friend. "Why, I that in several places the operating phy- Picayune. the mouth, causing intense pain, and just prior to her death it became necessary to rinse the inside of her mouth with ice water. The mother is positive in declaring that for three years the girl has been unable to retain food in a solid state upon her stomach, and there seems to be no good reason for doubting the statement. There were no indications that there had ever been an ulcer in the stomach, and death was caused by starvation, superinduced by the chronic inflammation of the stomach. The fact that she had been troubled to her band, effectually disposes of the theory that the shock occasioned by the amputation of the finger was the cause of trouble, and this being the case, it ecomes an interesting question. What was the primary cause of the difficulty? Miss Donaldson was twenty-five years and four months old at the time of her death: was a member of the Church of wherever known. The body is very much emaciated, but can be gained of the wonderful power o down to the office. - Hawkeye.

. A little domestic scene, as described by the rhymer of the Boston Commercial

Pater and Mater Familias sat—
Their visages puckered with care—
Pond'ring what they should do with their girls,
Their girls with the "auburn" heir.
"They play, and they sing, and they dance," she "They play, and they sing, and they dance," she said.

" and they sketch with penell and pen; They speak the German, and French, and draw "—

" Oh, yes !—any object but men,
And there they all stick," the old man growled,

"With all their gabble and Dutch:"

and he gave the poodle beneath his chair
A prof with the point of his crutch.

"But what can they do that is useful?" he yelled,
With an oath that was really shocking.

"Can they sew, or sweep, or cook, or clean,
Or darn the holes in their stocking?"

Darn the boles in their stocking?"

Darn the boles in their stocking?"

ah, no indeed! What the poor givis need Is a thorough knowledge of Greek!"

. She-"What age do you think I am ?" He, gallantly-"I don't know, but you don't look it."

One night the Emperor Joseph II., of . It must make a letter carrier awful Germany, determined on visiting his guards, to ascertain their fidelity, and mad to have his physician tell him he what dependence might be placed on eye. needs more outdoor exercise .- [Hawktheir vigilance. Finding them all asleep, or at least in appearance, he re-.. It is a curious scientific fact that the turned to his chamber for some money success of a steam propeller is largely which he had reserved for a different due to the fact that there's a screw loose .. A philosopher says rich people, as a rule, do not have large funerals. They

and placed under the arm of each one of are the exclusive property of poor people these purses, in every one of which were | who want to be thought rich.

. Sidney Smith once rebuked a swear-One of the soldiers who was not asleep, ing visitor by saying, "Let us assume Ithough he feigned to be so, took par- that every thing and everybody are first matice of the emperor, and, at damned and proceed with our subject "A cynical old practitioner says: A lady who practices medicine commits that it contained 100 processory and, suptained the purpose of two faults—she increases the number of posed each of his companion had as doctors and diminishes the number of much, of which he might take possion women."

.. A devoted husband says that the phonograph is simply a machine that 'alks back," and he has had one of that The emperor, who had no doubt that kina in his house ever since he was .. The fast that George Washington's wife never ased where he had been when he came home late at night, goes s great ways toward accounting for his .. A doctor went out for a day's hunting, and, on coming home, complained that he hadn't killed anything. "That's because you didn't attend to your legiti-.. " Mr. Jones, you said you were con-

"Sir, I fancied at night that a person stone to the man what does." .. Advice to young writers: If iyou many, when I was seized with a sudden by always remarking at meal time,

A circus band may toot in front of a substituot .- [Philadelphia Bulletin. showed her the "proot" and saked her him alone to enjoy the reward, saying: .. (Professor elequently holding forth To such an extent did the complaint "Yes, I approve of your decision; the to the junior rhetoric class. One of it, grow upon her that it became necessary prize is yours alone, for you only were members on the back scat, likewise holdto have a mug in her lap at meal time, awake. As for the rest it is sufficient for ling forth to her neighbor.) Professorinto which, immediately after eating, them to knew that each had a hundred "I beg pardon, Miss A, I believe I intershe vomited. In many instances, to use pieces of gold, which he lost by being rupted you.' Miss A .- "Oh, no, not jury gave her $7,500 damages. It is pathetic now to see a string of girls on hand there every morning waiting for that coal hole to be opened. I've just been down in the parlor to .. The Married State,-Marriage is always tell my wife to do just as she pleases, an' she never fails to do it."

"The Missing Link."

hedged in" from the outside world, ests of the country. The villagers also monkey. The 'Soko' may turn out to be ... It is very true that Ceorge Washing- only a monkey, but it seems clear that not long ago at the Zoo."

confessed, and my brother is a man once did not come.

she was going.

could purchase, and yet he was never at | Exchange.

peace, though for the world he would not have owned to anything of the kind. One day he was riding in the suburbs How of London, and came upon a little child sitting by the wayside, sobbing bitterly. She had her apron full of primroses and violets, and a black-and-white kitten was cuddled up in her arms. Moved by some impulse which he could not have and accosted her. She sobbed out her the accounts of the capture of that ves-little story with all a child's ingenuous- sel as telegraphed from Boston in conness. Her mamma had gone somewhere nection with the arrest of Lientenant or murder. to carry work, and she and Spot had Henry A. Parr as grossly inaccurate. He name was Spottie, and that was all she only amendable to the rule of war, and on the farm of James Thompson, in could tell to prove her identity. Sur- their exploits were in the ray of legiti- Highland, Ill. prised at himself for doing so, Ark- mate warfare. wright took her into his carriage-kitten and all-and carried her to his own home, called the He advertised her, and for the first substantially as for two or three days made some effort to Smalls, colored, recen member of in the Scuthern United States." discover her relatives. After that he did congress from Beaufirt (S. C.) disnot want to discover them. Into his cold, trict, was pilot of the steamer by an explorer in Africa who had someclosed heart Lily had crept, and made Planter, then lying at Carleston. He thing resembling wings like birds. These her home there; and the desolate, cyni- killed the guards of the essel, ran her are supposed to be the veritable black cal man found himself loving her as a out and delivered her ove to the federal angels so often spoken of. little befere he had not dreamed of lov- authorities. For this Saalls was pre | Jacksonville, Florida, is happy in the ing anything again. After the lapse of sented with a purse and made captain of possession of a boy twelve years of age, a fortnight, the idea of her leaving him the steamer. This exploi suggested the whose right hand has abnormally devel-

was coming to claim her. way in Arkwright House. They strayed with him First Lieutenat H. A. Parr entire body. The name of the owner of papers to their mutual satisfaction. Lily They were all officers in the Confederate is a mulatto.

unrebuked.

him for the care he had given Lily- listed engineer, who had leserted. The of what they saw.

"Mr. Arkwright!" She was the calmer of the two. A rose up within him. "This child! Whose is it?" he asked. "Mine and yours," she answered, quietly. "She was born four months after our separation. I wish you good He caught her arm in an iron grasp. "Stop! my child! mine!" he cried,

"No, not yours new," she said, steadily. "You forfeited the right to claim hat--all were Augusta's; and in a mo- I shall see you in this world-I will tell

"That was where I erred. Arthur where he was suspected of forgery. He ceeded to the main deck with the rest of was unable to prove his innocence, and my men, and posted a sentinel at the too proud to tell you that I was the sister of one whom the world looked upon secret from you, and upon that rock our of the sentry, and trying to reach the (Neb.) Journal. happiness was wrecked. Thank heaven! Arthur is free now-the guilty party has twice. I passed down to the engine-

Arkwright snatched her to his breast, and would not let her go. She tried her best to escape, but he held her fast. I suppose he won her pardon some way, for she remained at Arkwright House, and Lily and Spot remained likewise. Go there to-day, and you will see the

A Life Riddle Solved.

He had all night to subdue himself, lin, upon riches, and a young person in below and found the engineer lying another snore and more laughter. I at and if she had come to him in the morn- the company having expressed his surprise dead on the threshold of the engineonce recognized the mellifluous notes of ing with any rea onable explanation he that they ever should be attended with room. The body was sown in a sheet and my saponaceous friend. Getting out of would have listened to her. But she such anxiety and solicitude, instancing thrown overboard. I took three men one of his acquaintances, who, though and ordered Captain Willetts to surrenin possession of unbounded wealth, yet der to the confederate states as a prisoner room; but she was gone. She had taken was as busy and more anxious than the of war. Instead of so doing he leapt out with her only a bare change of raiment most assiduous clerk in his counting- and ran ten or twelve times around the and had left no message to tell whither house the doctor took an apple from a deck before he was captured. I did not fruit-basket and presented it to a little like to fire on him. I but him in irons "Fled with her paramour!" Ark- child, who could just totter about the in the wheel-house. The second officer wright said, bitterly; and then and room. The child could scarcely graspit I found afterwards secreted in the icethere he vowed to give himself no rest in its hand. He then gave it another, chest, and put him in irons to keep the until he had found and killed them both. which occupied the other hand. Then captain company. The chief engi-He tried hard to put his vow into execu- choosing a third, remarkable in size and neer, when ordered to surrender, tion. For three years he was a wan- beauty, he presented that also. The only opened his door derer, seeking always his wife and her child, after many ineffectual attempts to crack and was fired at and slightly hold the three, dropped the last on the wounded in the chin, when he dashed mander in the Confederale navy and cap- gunboats Elfa and Anna in the port of Captain Braine concludes his narrative by telling of the chase and capture of the Chesapeake by the United States tain of the expedition which captured Lahave, where she was taking coal. He explained, Arkwright stopped his horse the Chesapeake, in 1808, characterizes says that Parr is wealthy and can fight Very Solemn Facts.

A ball of pop-corn lies in the British

52 Robert in America greatly liked by the negroes and curling his hair into the most gro- reached Halifax; thence nev proceeded posed to be about three years of age, was unable to retain solid food of any descripbeginning to feel sure of the child, a lady enlisted a crew of twentytwo men, and twelve feet and three inches in circum-overed by a thick veil. Something in made a trip with them b boat and rail A boiling lake of sulphur was recently About three years ago the young which he attached severally to the when he is stung by a hornet. her low, sweet voice stirred the inner- via Boston to New York His account of discovered in central Asia by a newspa- lady, whose name is Agnes R. Donald- arm of each of us, and then withdrew. ... Queen Victoria's new saloon railmost depths of Mark Arkwright's na- their trip and their manjsubterfuges to per correspondent, who describes it as son, was employed as an operative in a ture, but a fierce pang shot through him avoid detection is very gaphic and interwhen he saw with what eagerness Lily esting. They passed as a company of land. In the lake are strange fishes, While working in the mill she was unew towards her.

"Mamma! darling mamma!" she ied, covering her with him.

"They passed as a company of land. In the lake are strange hashes, while working in the mill she was unfortunate enough to have the index of the purse under my own arm, and, ied, covering her with him.

"A chronic growler, who lived in a spout, but do not throw water, but sulcried, covering her with kisses. "I so forms under citizens' dres. On arriving phur, which sometimes arises to the in the machinery that amoutation was finding in it a hundred pieces of gold, I boarding-house, kept the landlady in a dad oo tum! Now oo and I, and Spot, at New York each mar was provided height of twenty feet, and illumines in considered necessary, and was performed supposed each of my companions had so state of torment all through the holidays with a brace of Colt's revolvers and the night the country for miles around, by a physician residing in that town, Arkwright reddened. He had been twenty cartridges by a onfederate gov. This discovery is being further pross who informed Miss Donaldson that her weak enough to teach this child to call ernment agent in Willias street. Sen- ecuted, and a body of scientific savants nervous system had received a shock myself that, for many cogent reasons him papa. He wondered what the lady tries were posted to wate the loading of intend visiting the place and making col- from which it would never recover. thought of his presumption; but she the Chesapeake, and when she was ready lections of the various strange things, Nothing further was thought of the well to do so; and so I did, which pleased seemed unwilling to linger. She thanked to sail all went on board except the en lafter which they will make a full report matter for some time. She subsequently me exceedingly on awaking. This, sir, doesn't make up for the failure to liquimate the sail all went on board except the en lafter which they will make a full report matter for some time.

.. A lesson in substraction: Aunt the Advent, and was loved and respected

VOL. XIV. NO. 22. andurance a human being possesses. Roston Herald.

The following lines are curved in Kensai Green kmetery, in memory of "Arm," of whom only he dates if her birth, martiage and death at Funchul, in Madeira, are recorded:

The presentall-forgot the past; It is not while we watch the eye Goeing with death's last quivering sigh— We feel our loss. It is not when we gently lay the loved rem. ins in death s array;
It is not shile with noiseless treed
e gather round it esle ping dead,
And for a few sad mourning days
On what was precious fondly gaze—
We feel our loss.

purpose, contained in as many purses as there were soldiers on duty--twelve in number. These he visited once more, 100 pieces of gold.

before they awoke. This he immedia-1 put in practice by gently easing them ou their valuable burdens. all the soldiers were asleep when he visited them, and that they must be overoved at discovering their good fortune, caused them to be called together early in the morning, and asked of them successively what they had dreamed the Medical men here and elsewhere will preceding night, and whether the sucundoubtedly be deeply interested in cess was answerable to the vision, reading the subjoined sketch, in which imagining that each would say that he sat on Arkwright's knee a great deal of navy. They ran the blockde, and, after the time are dwarfs among fishes as well the death of a young lady is recorded, had found a purse under his arm with the time, amusing herself with braiding taking passage on diffrent vessels, is among other animals. A whale, supthe matter did he hear from the first mate business," said his wife. tesque shapes; and Spot, with feline au- to St. John, where they sported to the captured off the coast of Norway by a tion upon her stomach for more than eleven that he examined until he came dacity, mounted on his shoulder, and confederate agent, who lad on deposit party of fishermen, about a year ago, two minutes at a time, and who, for nibbled the top of his pen, or thrust her $200,000 to $300,000 in gid, with orders It was placed in a large Aquariam in three months, has not partaken of nour.

came for her. This lady was tall and spent the summer in driling them. On ference around the body at the thickest fraternity will be glad to learn about the but soon came back with a dozen purses, never stops to hunt up a foreign word which then occurred to me, it would be began to complain of severe headaches is the whole of my dream. Thope your Saturday Night. No, it is a miserable Majesty approves of my devotion, which, I assure you, is very sincere and affec-

THE TWELVE PURSES.

Anecdote of Emperor Joseph II.

tionate."

her own language, it seemed as if she asleep. Hence they will learn that riches at all; I had finished." threw up more than she had eaten. Mat- are not acquired by slumber, or if, by some .. A Chicago girl, eight years old, had ters went on in this way for about one lucky accident they fall to the share of the one of her legs permanently shortened year, the patient becoming gradually slothful, they take flight as suddenly by falling through a coal hole, and a Little Danny and His Dead Mother.

for about three months. For two see mamma. She's in a long box, with not commonly unhappy, but as life is months of that time the only nourish flowers on her. I wish she'd come and unhappy; and most of those who comment she had was obtained by the inject bathe my head-it aches so. Nobody plain of connubial miseries have as tion of beef tea into the rectum. There ever makes it feel good but mamma, much satisfaction as their natures would being no probability of her ultimate re- She knew how it hurt me, and she used have admitted, or their conduct procovery, she was taken to her home in the to read to me out of a little book how cured in any other condition. rear of No. 10 Norman street, where her my head would get well and not ache . Robinson (after a long whist-bout at death occurred on Saturday morning at any more some day. I wish it was the club)-"It's awfully late, Brown. 6 o'clock. For three months, as can be "some day" now. Nobody likes me but What will you say to your wife?" proved by Drs. McDonald and Dale, mamma. That's cause I've got a sick Brown (in a whisper)-"Ch, I shan't say both of whom were in attendance upon head. Mamma used to take me in her much, you know: 'Good morning, dear,' her at the time of her death, she has not arms and cry. When I asked her what's or something o' that sort. She'll say the been able to retain even a drink of water, the matter she would say, "I'm only rest!" Almost every day for the last month the tired, darling." I guess Aunt Agnes . How much sweeter will life become physicians have been obliged, in order to made her tired, for when she came to when the newspapers say "fishermen" relive the intense pain the poor girl was stay all day mamma would take me up or "anglers" instead of "disciples of suffering, to administer subcutaneous in- in the evening on her lap and cry awful Izaak Walton," and "dancers" instead jections of morphia. After her death an hard, I ain't had any dinner to-day, of "votaries of terpsichore!" But it autopsy was held with the following re- Mamma always gave me my dinner and will never happen, never .- [New Orsult: It showed that death was caused a little teenty pudding with "D," for leans Times. by chronic inflammation of the stomach, "Danny," on the top. I have little .. "Bill, how did you and Tom end not ulceration, as had been supposed, puddings with D's on top. I like to sit that dispute Sunday!" "Why, I called The mucous membrane, in which the in my little chair by the fire and eat him a liar and dropped the subject." gastric juice is secreted, was completely 'em. I wish mamma wouldn't stay in "Called him a liar? Did he take it?" obliterated, while the stomach itself was the long box. I guess Aunt Agnes rut "Take it? Of course he took it! But I badly decomposed. In the stomach there her there, cause she put all the flower dropped stimultaneously with the subwas discoved two ounces of of a dark green trimmings on and shows her to every- ject."-[Breakfast Table. fluid for the presence of which the phys. body. There sin't no fire in the grate, icians are unable to account, as she but I guess I'll sit by it and make be-

The Roads of Ireland.

The public roads of Ireland are absolutely perfect. Go where you will I hear (says a London correspondent) through the rural districts, and the roads that Prof. Huxley, and Mr. Stanley, the are thoroughly turn-piked, thoroughly African explorer, have been settling for drained, and as level as a board. The themselves the much-vexed qustions of bridges over the creeks and rivers are all the "missing link." The details will no of stone. Every road has a sidewalk for doubt be furnished in Mr. Stanley's book, foot passengers, elevated about six inches which is expected to appear early next over the main road, and from four to six month. Meanwhile the following in feet wide. The fences on either side are stallment may interest your readers of solid stone masonry, to the height of "On one occasion the travelers observed from four to six feet, upon the top of that the street of a village through which are growing hedges of hawthorn which his route lay was ornamente or furze, or grass and flowers. . The walls with rows of peculiar looking skulls. He inclosing the roads are festooned with was told that the quondam owners of ivy and wild flowers, producing a charm the skulls had been used for miams with her stomach prior to the accident ing effect. Every country seat is thus (food) and that the race lived in the for-There is no getting over this barrier, and called the wood dwellers 'Soko.' Mr access can only be had through the lodge Stanley, it seems, had not the opportugates, which are in charge of the lodge nity to procure a live specimen, but keeper, generally a woman, who admits procured a 'Soko' skull and skin. The only a favored few. The constabulary skull be lately forwarded to Prot. Huxare always on hand to arrest trespassers. ley, who appears to have decided on "Tramps" have a poor show in Ireland. ranking it with the human skull. The They must keep to the roads-or go to skin, however, is declared to be that of a in other respects looks well. When the ton never told a lie, but then his wife there is more of the man about him than

WAIFS AND WHIMS.

Bulletin: